Bad reports come from Lochinvar with regard to the teacher who for a short time has had charge of that school. It will be in the interests of school districts who may be in need of a teacher to make sure that the one who applies is not this man. At present we will say nothing more than that he is a Frenchman, and will furnish his reputation to any one who may have received his application.

As will be seen elsewhere in this issue, the Council of the Town of Lacombe will soon submit to the ratepayers the by-law granting a franchise of the town to the Lacombe Brick, Tile and Cement Co. for the supply of natural gas within the limits for the period of ten years. The council has taken every precaution to safeguard the interests of the ratepayers in this matter, and the prices at which the Company is bound to supply gas to the citizens is most reasonable. It is a hard matter to make a franchise of this nature comparatively sale, but in this instance it is hard to find where anything has been over-looked by the council. Nothing will hurt the town like a good supply of gas at a low price, and it is in the interests of the town that this by-law be passed. Read it over carefully and be in a position to vote intelligently.

Mr. Burris wishes to thank all the kind friends who have assisted him during the illness and since the death of his beloved wife.

A debate on "Woman's Suffrage" will take place in the Women's Club Room on Saturday evening, March 28, at 8 o'clock. The following are the debaters—Affirmative, Mrs. Giberson, Mrs. Gotschlich, Mrs. Butcher, and Eadie. Negative, Mrs. A. Bainforth, Dr. Weger, Mr. Walker and another not yet named. There will be a musical program also, and at the close a lunch will be served by the ladies. Admission, 25c.

On and after March 20, any person leaving horses unattended in the streets of Lacombe, will be prosecuted. Runaways are becoming too prevalent, and sooner or later a fatal accident will occur if steps are not taken to prevent them. A. D. Watson of the Lacombe Iron Works, will have a supply of the weights ready for sale on Monday morning, and it will be money well invested to procure one. Twenty-five pounds is the minimum weight allowed to tie to. Either get a tie weight or fasten your horses securely in some other way.

For giving an interdicted person a bottle of booze, a young man named Martin was fined $75 and costs on Friday by Magistrate Carruthers, with the option of three months in the Fort. Martin was fined $75 and costs for giving the booze to the interdicted person. The interdicted person received the booze was fined $25 and costs. The police are determined to put a stop to this nefarious business, and are keeping their eyes open. All the money well invested to procure one. Twenty-five pounds is the minimum weight allowed to tie to. Either get a tie weight or fasten your horses securely in some other way.

A team of Red Deer bowlers, Messrs. Archibald, Carruthers, Caracadden, Grier and Cooney, met a Lacombe team consisting of Messrs. Olson, Chase, Sherman, Metzger and Ritz on Friday afternoon last. Three games were bowled, and resulted in a win for the Lacombe men by a score of 2,218 to 2,119. Bowling is gaining in favor every day, and Lacombe is turning out some first-class men. One of our citizens made the highest score ever rolled up in Canada at Edmonton last week, when H. Ross beat all records.

BASEBALL

On Friday night a well attended meeting of the baseball club was held, at which several of the "fans" were present. The consensus of opinion was that there was material enough in town to put a last team on the field this year, and as a result it was decided to organize at once. It was also decided to try and organize a league composed of Wetaskiwin, Ponoka, Red Deer and Lacombe. New uniforms will be provided and the ball park put in first-class condition. A scheme of advertising the town is also on foot, and no doubt the business men will readily take up the matter.

The following officers were elected: Hon. President—J. W. Fortune. President—Mr. Nickerson. 1st Vice-Pres.—R. H. Inglis. Sec.-Treas.—W. M. Reid. Manager—A. S. Stewart.

Assessors, French, Friezel and Metzger were appointed to look after the uniforms.

The grounds will be looked after by R. Miller, on behalf of the baseball club, and Jas. Hutchison, on behalf of the football club.

It is hoped the citizens will take an interest in the summer sports and help keep up the reputation of Lacombe as a town that lacks nothing in the line of sport.

"What Happened To Jones"

Don't fail to attend the opera house tomorrow (Thursday) night, on the occasion of the appearance here of the Bentley Dramatic Association in their splitting comedy, "What Happened To Jones." This play, as interpreted by the Bentley artists, leaves nothing to be desired, and when you see John Dameron as the chief of the Lacombe police force, you will be glad you came. Every member of the cast is good and the play is one laugh from start to finish. Secure your tickets now and show the enterprising young people of Lacombe that their efforts are appreciated. Pack the house. Tickets on sale at City Pharmacy.

LACOMBE DISTRICT POULTRY ASSOCIATION.

A public meeting will be held in the Town Hall, over the Fire Hall, on Tuesday, March 31st, at 8 p.m. Mr. A. W. Foley, Superintendent of the Provincial Poultry Farm at Edmonton, will speak on "Co-operative Egg Circles."

After the public meeting a business meeting of the association will be held. Every member is requested to make a special effort to attend.

HOW LITTLE IT COSTS.

How little it costs, if we were to give it a thought, To make happy some heart each day.

Just one kind word or a tender smile, As we go on our daily way.

Perchance a look will suffice To the cloud from a neighbor's face; And the press of a hand in sympathy A sorrowful tear efface.

One walks in sunlight, another in shadow; One treads a path that is fair and smooth, Another must pray for aid.

It costs so little I wonder why we give it so little thought; A smile, kind words, a glance, a touch! What magic with them is wrought!

—AUGUSTINE Schinvar, March 21.

Death of Mrs. Burris

Mrs. W. J. Burris (nee Mac Elizabeth Shilleto) died on Saturday afternoon last after an illness extending over several years. The funeral was held on Monday afternoon from the family residence, the late Mr. Wheeler, of Ponoka, conducting the service, in the presence of a large number of friends of the family, who had assembled to pay their last respects to the departed.

Deceased was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Shilleto of Lacombe, and has spent most of her young life here, and by her gentle and lovable disposition, numbered among her friends everyone with whom she came in contact. She was in her thirties, and besides her parents and brothers and sisters, she leaves to mourn her loss her husband and two young children, Ollie and Willie.

To the bereaved family the sympathy of the whole community is extended.

Golden Wedding

On March 16 a large number of the relatives and friends of Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Crocker gathered at their home to celebrate the fiftieth anniversary of their marriage. At four o'clock the company sat down to a dinner that was well worthy of the occasion, and during the evening, a considerable toast list was introduced. After the usual toast to the King, received in the usual manner, the toast master, Mr. S. Nicholson, called on Dr. Shatpe to propose the toast to the bride and groom of fifty years ago, which he did in a pleasing address. Mr. Crocker made a very suitable reply. Rev. Messrs. Rogers then proposed the toast, "Mr. and Mrs. Crocker's Children," and Mr. J. B. Crocker replied. Mr. A. W. Hunter, of Armstrong, B.C., proposed the toast to the nephews and nieces, to which Mr. C. C. Burton, of Lacombe, replied. The next toast, to the grand-children, was proposed by Mr. A. E. Drader and replied to by Mr. W. E. Nicholson, M.E.M. Crocker, of Kermoss, B.C., proposed the toast to the neighbors and friends, to which Mr. J. A. Bradley, who was on his way from Hamilton, Ont., and did not arrive in time. The family has been very favored in that there has not been a break by death in nearly forty years. Of the twenty-two grand-children all are living, fifteen of whom are present on this occasion.

After the more formal part of the program, considerable time was spent in music and song in an informal manner, and in social intercourse, all vying the entertainment proceedings an unimpaired success.

Mr. and Mrs. Crocker were the recipients of very many congratulations from friends from a distance on the completion of fifty years of life together; by request standing Mrs. Crocker's recent sickness, they are both in good health, and were able to enter heartily into the festivities of the evening. All their family were present except one son-in-law, Mr. J. A. Bradley, who was on his way from Hamilton, Ont., and did not arrive in time. Lacombe District News

Arbordale News

The Fairview Literary Society held their last meeting for the season last Saturday night. The house was soon packed, and a very good program was given, and afterwards refreshments and coffee were served out, and a sociable hour was spent. Our Literary has excelled anything we have ever had in previous years, and next fall we should see better things yet.

Mr. Smith, of Botha, was among us again, coming in specially to help with the program for the Literary, and added very materially to it, which was very much appreciated.

Mr. Butcher and Mr. Eadie will debate the subject of "Woman Suffrage" this week at the club rooms of the Woman's Institute in Lacombe.

Mr. Williams, Mr. Wilson and Mr. B. F. Butcher have gone to Rimbey in search of oil. We wish them success.

Mrs. C. W. Gatskel will entertain the entire cast of "Mrs. Carter's Fancy Dress Ball" at her home on Tuesday of this week.

John Eadie and A. Calkin are going to their homesteads in the Mountain House district the end of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. McCutcheon and family leave for their homestead in the Mountain House district on Monday of this week. We all wish you success, Mac, and hate to see you leave us.

Jack Roberts is with us again once more, and it is good to see his dear old face again.

You can say goodbye to constipation with a clear conscience if you use Chamberlain's Tablets. Many have been permanently cured by their use. For sale by City Pharmacy. (5)

Spring Valley News

Messrs. Fluke and Van Dyke have recently left the district for their homesteads in the Czar district.

Frank Cook has returned from his homestead and is visiting friends in this vicinity.

It has been proposed petitioning for a district post office. This is much needed. Postal facilities are of a minor order, considering the length of time the settlement has been in existence and its population. It is a rarity even in the "wilderness" to have to travel ten to fifteen miles for mail.

Frank Randall was the victim last week of a surprise party. The length of time the settlement has been in existence and its population. It is a rarity even in the "wilderness" to have to travel ten to fifteen miles for mail.

Mr. Cull is already preparing for spring, and is busy erecting a new granary.

Mrs. Miligan has been visiting with her sons during the past week.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has won its great reputation and extensive sale by its remarkable cures of coughs, colds and croup. It can be depended upon; try it. Sold by City Pharmacy. (1)

Women's Institute A Success

During the past six months the Women's Institute has been working faithfully to make a comfortable and homelike "Rest Room" for the women and children who come to Lacombe to shop; also through the monthly meetings to help the members and others to a better and easier way to happiness and comfort. So far both of these objects have been accomplished in a measure. Up to date the Institute has a membership of 40, and has taken in $131, including the "Rest Room" fund, $21 of which was expended on the building of a toilet, and the remainder for furnishing the club room and for rents.

It has been proposed that the Institute, as a club, keep in touch with all labor-saving devices for making house-keeping easy. Any merchant having any thing new to recommend will be welcome to demonstrate its use at any of the meetings.

Word has been received from the Government that circulating libraries are being furnished to Institutes, and all who are contemplating joining are requested to do so at once, in order that a sufficient number of books may be sent by the department.

Type-written programs for the remainder of the year will be left in the club room.

Police Constable Miller has promised to keep an eye on the club room, and the persons who have removed two copies of the Ladies' Home Journal, in pad, etc., are requested to return them at once; also the person who borrowed the table and two chairs will kindly return the one chair which is still missing.

Ulster Situation Very Grave, Government May be Preparing For Military Demonstration

Ulster has grown suddenly grave, March 20.—An emergency force of picked men from the Ulster volunteers was hastily summoned to headquarters last night. The motive of the sudden call has been kept secret, but rumors persist of military action on the part of the government and projected arrests.

London, March 20.—Grave events are impending in Ulster, according to the Ulster newspapers, and a rumor is current that the government is preparing for the military occupation of the province. There are various indications that a crisis has been reached.

The vote of censure on the British government, which was moved in the house of commons yesterday by Andrew Bonar Law, leader of the opposition, was rejected by 345 to 252. Arthur J. Balfour, summoned by Mr. Bonar Law, made a hurried return from the Riviera and arrived in London in time to participate in the division.

There were reports also of the "arrested arrest" of Sir Edward Carson and other leaders of the Ulster Unionists, but it was officially declared that there was no truth in the statement that warrants had been signed for such arrests.

Sir Edward Carson, however, made a dramatic exit from the house before the debate was concluded to catch a train for Belfast. Austin Chamberlain declared last night that Sir Edward had been called away in response to sudden developments in Ireland. Other Unionists asserted that Ulstermen can no longer be restrained from an outbreak, and that Sir Edward's mission is to endeavor to hold them back. The Daily Telegraph's lobbyist says: "Unless all omens are false, blood will be spilt in Ulster before the house of commons sees Sir Edward Carson again."

The Marquis of Londonderry and other prominent Ulsterites are now on their way to Belfast, and their action is regarded as a challenge to the government. It is asserted, an intention exists to issue warrants for their arrest.

The view of both Liberal and Unionist newspapers is that after yesterday's debate all chances of settlement by consent are ended, and the Home Rule Bill will be passed in its original form.

It is said the government has assured the Nationalist leaders that Mr. Bonar Law's referendum offer will not be accepted. Belfast, March 19.—The atmosphere denly electrical and important developments may occur at any moment. Sinister rumors abound and there are signs and portents indicating that early and momentous action by the government may be expected.

The guards have been doubled and the garrisons strengthened at the military barracks with a view of preventing possible raids for munitions of war by the covenanters. It is persistently reported that the warlike of the leaders of the Ulster volunteer force is imminent. Meanwhile there is unusual activity among the Ulster volunteers. Forty members of the motor cyclist corps left Belfast under secret orders and the Unionists are convinced that the authorities contemplate some coup.

It is stated in military circles that the government has a comprehensive scheme for pouring Ulster troops into the province within 24 hours and holding all strategic points by an overwhelming force. Officers commanding the different districts have received instructions a month ago as to the positions to be occupied immediately in the event of trouble.

London, March 19.—The Ulster situation remains electrical. Indeed, it seems now apparent that no settlement is possible while the Home Rule Bill is passing through the commons. Foster Fraser, writing in The Standard, asserts that the politicians will not settle the trouble and that all hope of peace has evaporated. An opinion is prevalent, however, that a final supreme effort to secure parliamentary settlement will coincide with the appearance of the bill in the house of lords, the optimists urging that the tone of Bonar Law's speech leaves a hope that an arrangement may yet be reached.

The consensus of opinion upon the referendum proposal put forward by Mr. Bonar Law is that it is entirely unacceptable. The Liberal press views the proposal as a mere device to annihilate the operation of the parliament act.

The Daily Chronicle pointing out that the application of the referendum to home rule entails its incorporation as a permanent part of the political institutions of the country involving a revolution on British principles of government and opening up the possibility of a demand for a referendum on every big issue before parliament. The Standard (Conservative) says this morning: "We are moving fast towards a catastrophe and the government is making no real effort to arrest the ruinous process now in operation."

The Morning Post (Conservative) asserts that the only result of yesterday's debate will be an aggravation of the already existing crisis.

Non-partisan observers, however, discount Sir Edward Carson's heresies as intended purely for Belfast consumption, and attribute pacific rather than belligerent intentions in connection with his visit to Belfast. It is notable in this connection that the Unionist press unanimously counsels restraint in Ulster while the Expositor describes as "a magazine of high explosives which a single rash act may set blaze." The Daily Telegraph editorially on Thursday, asserting "our information leaves no doubt that a plan is in existence for breaking Ulster by provoking an outbreak and crushing it in blood."

The Express asserts that 20,000 troops and 180 guns are available in Ireland and that the government has selected Glasgow as its base of operations. The oft-discarded stories of possible wholesale arrests of Ulster leaders persist, though it is known that Mr. Asquith has caused a communication to be sent to the Unionist leaders denying that warrants have been issued. The situation is undoubtedly precarious in view of the possibility of sudden unorganized rioting in Ulster, but it is not necessary for the Ulster volunteers to adopt an altogether pessimistic outlook.

ANOTHER OF THE OLD GUARD HAS PASSED AWAY

Brantford, March 21.—Word was received of the death at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Dr. Branscombe, Picton, Ont., at 2:30 Wednesday afternoon of Hon. Wm. Patterson, minister of customs in the Laurier Government.

While his death comes as a great shock, it was not entirely unexpected, as Mr. Patterson has been in very poor health for some time.

He is survived by his wife, along with two sons and one daughter, one son, Charles Gordon, holding a chair in a theological college at San Francisco, while the other, W. F., is president of Wm. Patterson & Son, Ltd., this city, biscuit manufacturers.

In the death of the Hon. Wm. Patterson, there is removed another of the band of fighters in the Liberal ranks, who for years fought persistently against Sir John A. Macdonald, and later were associated with Sir Wilfrid Laurier in the government from 1896 to 1911. He was minister of customs during that period and carried out his duties with great success. When the reciprocal negotiations were under way for Mr. Patterson and Mr. Fielding were left the presentations of the views of the Canadian government.

Life was a fight all the way for Wm. Patterson. Born in Hamilton in 1839, of Scottish parents, he was only ten years old when they were both carried away within a few hours by the dread cholera epidemic.

The orphan boy was taken by Rev. Andrew Ferrier, D.D., of Caledonia, and by him brought up and educated. At first he was a clerk in a grocery store, and afterwards formed a partnership with H. H. Lecumin in the manufacture of biscuits and confectionery in Brantford. Later, in 1876, he took over the whole business and became exceedingly prosperous.

In 1865 he married Lucy Clive, the third daughter of T. C. Davies, of Brantford.

He began his political life when he defeated Sir Francis Hincks, minister of finance, in South Brant by 272 votes in 1872. At that time, as mayor of Brantford, Mr. Patterson was but 33 years old, but had shown himself energetic and public spirited.

The contest was a most stubborn one, and the Macdonald-Carter ministry, of which his opponent was a member, had a large majority, but the vigor of the Liberal candidate and the enthusiasm of his supporters won the election. It was a striking introduction for the inexperienced young man to have defeated the old and experienced political leaders of the time.

Standing six feet or more, with arms and shoulders, eyes and jaw to match, he was a striking figure when he rose in his seat.

In spite of his thunderous voice his biting sarcasm and his vigorous denunciations, the Hon. Mr. Patterson was kindly and warm hearted. His defeat a couple of years ago did not embitter him in the least and he seemed to enjoy the respite from the fighting which has been his lot throughout so many years.

to renew, alter or repair all or any of the works so laid down or constructed, and to pump or otherwise force natural gas through the said pipes, provided that the plans showing the proposed location of the said main and branch gas pipe lines and building connections as aforesaid shall first be submitted to and approved of by the Council for that purpose, which said approval shall not be unreasonably withheld, and such right of approval shall not be exercised in any event entirely to prevent the laying of any pipe lines proposed by the Company.

3. That the said Company shall forthwith and in any event within twelve months after the date of the coming into force of this By-law, receive the approval of the Burgeses of the Municipality as by law provided, commence active operations for the purpose of boring or drilling for natural gas, and shall prosecute the said boring or drilling operations with reasonable diligence and continuity from the date of commencement thereof until they have reached a depth of at least seventeen hundred (1,700) feet, unless before the said depth of seventeen hundred (1,700) feet is reached natural gas is found in sufficient quantities to supply the requirements and demands of the Municipality for heat and power for or in connection with the boring or drilling to a depth of seventeen hundred (1,700) feet or until gas is found as hereinafore provided shall be completed within one year from the date of the coming into force of this By-law, carrying on the said operations as provided in this paragraph.

Provided that in the event of the said Company having been unable to obtain the necessary pipe of the size required for the boring or drilling within the period of twelve months, then upon the said Company producing evidence to the satisfaction of the said Council of the impossibility of procuring the said pipe within the said time and of their having made reasonable efforts to secure the same, the said Council shall extend the said period of twelve months allowed for commencement of the carrying on of the said boring or drilling for such further period as the said Council may deem necessary to enable the said Company to secure the said pipe.

4. That before any of the works hereby authorized are undertaken or carried on by the said Company within the said Municipality, plans showing the character and extent thereof shall be furnished to the Council and approved thereby and the time and place for the carrying on of the said works shall be under the supervision and control of the said Engineer or such other person appointed by the Council for supervising said work.

5. That the said Company shall, so far as reasonably can be, if so directed by the Council, lay its gas pipe lines along the lanes of the Municipality.

6. The exclusive powers, rights, liberties and franchises heretofore contained and subject to the passing of this By-law, and shall continue until the said Company has commenced drilling or boring as provided in Paragraph 3, and in the event of the said Company failing to commence drilling or boring within the said period of one year or to supply the requirements of the Municipality from time to time and with a minimum pressure of eight ounces measured by the Pitot tube at all points within the said Municipality, so supplied with gas during the continuance of the said exclusive franchise for heat and power purposes, then the said powers, rights, liberties and franchises hereby granted shall be held, used and enjoyed subject to the terms hereby provided by the Company until the expiration of ten (10) years from the date hereof, and the Municipality shall not during the said period of ten (10) years, subject to the provisions and conditions hereinafter contained, grant to any person or Corporation the right to construct or lay main or branch pipe lines or connections on, in or under or through the streets of the said Municipality for the supplying of natural gas.

7. That if the said Company shall fail to supply natural gas in the said Municipality to meet the full requirements thereof from time to time for light, heat and power purposes, and the pressure is below the minimum stipulated for a period of twelve months for any cause save and except accident, the privileges hereby granted as aforesaid shall be suspended, or if the Municipality so decide, shall be cancelled, and in such event that if the said Municipality cancel the said agreement, it shall have the privilege of taking over the assets of the Company situated within the Municipality at a price to be determined upon arbitration under the terms and provisions of "The Arbitration Ordinance" of the Province of Alberta or otherwise, if mutually agreed between the said Municipality and the Company, provided, however, that unless the said Municipality within three months from the date of cancellation as aforesaid notify the said Company in writing of its intention of so taking over the said assets of the Company situated within the said Municipality as hereinbefore provided, the Company may otherwise sell or dispose of its aforesaid assets without notice to the said Municipality, provided, however, that if after the expiration of the said twelve months, the Municipality has not, prior to the time when the said Company is again able to supply natural gas to the satisfaction of the Council and to the extent of the requirements of the Municipality as aforesaid, entered into any contract, agreement or arrangement inconsistent with the franchise hereby granted, the same may be revived in full force and effect at the option of the Council, and remain in force as aforesaid for the remainder of the ten (10) years from the date hereof, subject to the preceding provisions of this By-law.

Provided further that the privileges hereby granted shall continue only as long as the Company shall supply the said natural gas at a maximum charge of five (5) cents per thousand cubic feet for domestic purposes, and twelve and a half (12 1/2) cents per thousand (1,000) cubic feet for Municipal, Church, Public School, Factory and Power purposes.

7. Provided further that the rights, privileges and franchises hereby granted shall not exceed the following rates:—For domestic and lighting purposes, twenty-five (25) cents per thousand cubic feet for domestic purposes, and twelve and a half (12 1/2) cents per thousand cubic feet for Municipal, Church, Public School, Factory and Power purposes.

Provided, however, that the privileges hereby granted may be enjoyed by the said Company, and the Municipality shall be liable for the cost thereof, and the Company shall at all times, if required, while any street or pavement shall be broken up, cause a light sufficient for the warning of passengers to be set up and maintained every night during which the same shall be broken up and a proper guard carrying the day, to the satisfaction of the Engineer.

8. The said Company shall, so long as it continues to enjoy the right of exclusive franchise hereby granted, whether exclusive or otherwise, supply as much gas as may be required within the limits of the Municipality at the property line, when the places or buildings to be supplied with gas are situated on land lying along the line of any main supply pipe line of the said Company, and the cost of the said connections from the main to the said property line shall be borne by the said Company, and the said Company shall indemnify the Municipality for any damages arising out of the construction or operation of their works, including therein, the construction of and keeping in repair every main or other work provided for and done by the Company in connection with the said Works of the Company, or the conveying of gas through such mains, and including any damage the Municipality may be held liable for from any branch of an ordinance or statute of the Province of Alberta or of any By-law of the aforesaid Town not inconsistent herewith, by the Company, its servants, agents or employees.

9. A contract embodying the provisions hereof and a covenant on the part of the Company to conform to and fulfill all the matters and provisions hereby required of it shall be drawn and shall be executed by the Municipality and the Company within two weeks from the passing of this By-law.

10. METHODIST CONCERT

The large audience which gathered in the Public Hall, Blackfalds, on Monday, were well pleased with the program submitted to them by local talent from Blackfalds, Lakeside, and Blindman. There is good musical talent right in our own neighborhood that simply wants a chance to develop itself. The program was most varied, and included a piano duet by Mrs. Trout and Mrs. Magee; bass song by Mr. Hand; song by Chester Miller (encored); comic song by Mr. Dunham (encored); selections by the orchestra (encored)—Violins, Mrs. Davies and Mr. Dunham; cornet, Rev. Davies; horn, time horn, Frank Slater; piano, Mrs. Magee. Masters Ray and Roy Hand gave recitations, and the male voice quartette sang a comic piece which was loudly encored. Two musical sketches, entitled "The Auctioneer" and "The Wrong Man," were excellently rendered by Mrs. Davies (soprano), Mrs. Hand (alto), Mr. Dunham (tenor), and Mr. Hand (bass). These were certainly the star pieces of the evening.

The boys from Lakeside had a great reception with their Kiwanis selections and had to respond to repeated encores. Under the leadership of Mr. Leonard Jones, they contributed songs, duets and choruses in fine style, each item being well received. Miss Ethel Walden also sang very sweetly. Special mention should be made of the pieces rendered by the children from the Blindman school, Evelyn Headmark, Verne Krouse, Marvin and Roy Miller. In their dialogue, "The Quarell," they captivated the audience with their quaint actions, and they also sang their quartettes nicely. During the evening Rev. Davies thanked all present for their kind support.

F. E. Matthias made an excellent chairman, and the entertainment closed with "God Save The King."

Born, March 21, to Professor and Mrs. C. S. Smith, a son, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Smith, were somewhat surprised Thursday evening when, on coming home, they found in their dining room a company of sixty of their friends and neighbors, who had planned to give them a farewell call before their departure for Regina, Sask., where they go to take charge of the Conference office at that place. A short program had been prepared, and all seemed to enjoy themselves. Before leaving the family was presented with a nine-volume set of books, bound in limp leather, as a token of the esteem of their friends. Mr. Wissner left Sunday and the family will follow the first of the month.

Miss Bella Burrows, who has been spending a portion of her furlough in Rosedale, left yesterday for her field in India. She was to speak last evening in the Baptist church in Disbury, and will spend a little time with her mother in Oregon. Her friends gave her a farewell surprise last Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Hansen, and the Missionary Volunteers presented her with a portable organ for use in her work. We regret that it seems necessary to bid so many of our friends farewell in this time, but since they are answering the calls of duty, we wish them the best of success in their undertakings.

NEWSPAPERS AND SLANG

One of the things regarding which Englishmen who come to Canada are particularly critical is the style of newspaper writing. Prominent Englishmen have taken apparent delight in pointing out its weakness, while visitors of the opposite persuasion frequently quote as critical. One of the points they all emphasize is the amount of slang appearing in Canadian papers, which apparently greatly offends their literary taste.

We do not often read the English papers, but imagine the surprise which the following sentences created when found in a London paper of undoubted standing: "All this solemn talk about 'settling' is merely anana in English public life," the traditions which have enabled us to retain our self-respect and win the respect of foreign countries; our standard of morality; the example to our self-governing colonies, and so on—all this was only so much hot air. Nobody was deceived by it, least of all the Pharisees who listened with such evident approval. Lord Lansdowne went the whole hog."

In view of remarks like these about "hot air" and "whole hog," appearing on the front page of a London paper of standing, we had to see where criticism of the Canadian papers for their slowness is justified. Small wonder cultured Englishmen are not a movement for "English unadulterated."

Professor's Plea for Prevention of War is Endorsed

Prof. Mack Eastman, of the University of Calgary, carried the delegates to the convention of the association of rural municipalities with him in favor of the agricultural classes, and the trades unions uniting for the prevention of war, in an address before that body in Paces Hall, Calgary, Thursday evening.

Prof. Eastman declared that if the people of a country would not go to war, the government could not. The prevention of war lay in the hands of the people. In the west there was a golden opportunity for the people to unite against militarism. If this movement were undertaken in Western Canada, it would spread to the Western States and on through the continent to the world. The delegates to the convention appeared to be heartily in favor of Prof. Eastman's suggestion. They warmly applauded many of his remarks.

Prof. Eastman took the opportunity to speak against a naval contribution to Great Britain by the people of Canada. "If it would help England or the world, a naval contribution might be justified," he said. "But our contribution would stimulate German naval effort, the triple alliance naval effort, and it would stimulate other nations in the matter of constructing warships. The final result would be to leave the powers as they now stand. All would be a little stronger than they now are, but a little nearer exhaustion. Since the day when Emperor William declared that the future of Germany lay upon the sea, Great Britain and Germany have been vied with each other in the construction of navies. This has been done to their mutual impoverishment."

"Some are anxious to see Canada a party to this. But it is not our duty to squander our heritage in aggravating old world ills."

"If organized agriculture would join hands with organized labor, the combination would be too strong for the government to despise. If organized business joined with organized agriculture and organized labor, success would be immediate."

"In Europe the agriculturists have been faint-hearted or wrong-minded. They have taken no decisive stand. But in the west there is a golden opportunity. The agriculturists and the unionists should enter into a covenant to support no war, whether just or unjust. If the people will not support a war, the government cannot."

"The agriculturists and the workmen combine there will be no war."

"The example of the farmers and the union men of the west would be followed by the farmers and the union men of the United States. International agriculture and international labor can paralyze militarism. They can force peace upon their governments," he said.

Prof. Eastman concurred with Prof. Eastman's suggestion. "One of our duties is the forming of a happy, contented, war-hating country," he declared.

Ald. Treigill declared that the suggestion Prof. Eastman made carried his address, that an international police be formed to protect the rights of the people was a new one. The proposal that armies be abolished and that an international police be formed to preserve order was one that should be carried further.

Other speakers at the evening session were Dr. Mahood, medical health officer for Calgary, and R. J. Deachman, single taxer, President Greenfield in the chair.

Dr. Mahood went into the question of eugenics, declaring that this work should be encouraged and that a better human stock should be bred.

Mr. Deachman spoke upon single tax. He admitted that taxation taken as a whole was a rather repugnant subject. It had been one of the causes of human struggle the world over. It lost to Great Britain the United States. The first plan of taxation was not the right of humanity but the rights of property.

But it was gradually becoming that it was the right of humanity that was considered first.

"The system of taxation should not be based upon anything except that it shall work out so that it will produce the greatest good to the greatest number," he said.

This idea was the outcome of the replacing of aristocratic rule by democratic rule.

Despite all the progress of the ages, he said, there still remained poverty. Such conditions must be faced. Something must be done to solve this problem. In England the average production per head per year was $250.

That amounted to approximately $1,250 per family. The total production of wealth was enough to keep all in comfort. It would be necessary to eliminate unproductive labor.

"The forces of production are club and knife—and gun and the dynamite bomb and obey the law. If there is a worker who has what you consider to be bad taste and the poor judgment not to belong to a union, you are not obliged to associate with him or greet him with friendliness when you meet. But you are obliged not to assault, or molest him. He may be, in your opinion, a scab, but he has a legal right to be a scab if he chooses. He has a legal right to work for whomsoever he pleases, and for whatever number of hours in each day he pleases. Persuade him to stand by his fellow-workman if you can. That is your right. But keep your hands off him. You may be sure that if you attempt violence there will step to the front a deputy United States marshal who will say to you with a voice of 75,000,000 of people, and with the bayonets of an army behind him, 'Let that man pass to his labors.'

It would mean that all the land would be put to use. The present tax system created deserts. He suggested that his hearers take a walk out around Calgary to see how much land was lying idle for speculative purposes. Nearly a head of cabbage was grown within ten miles of the center of Calgary. As a consequence the citizens of this city bought the cabbages from Vernon or Kelowna. In a period of four years in Calgary there had been an increase in land values of $60,000,000. The land-owner did not labor, but he got his reward. Instead of the money going toward the building up of the city, the providing of work for the unemployed, or other goodly purposes, it went into the pockets of a few.

"When these men take that which they did not create, you can take it that some men did not get that which they did create," he said.

By taxing the land alone, the money to operate government would be provided, and all land-owners would be forced to work their lands, pay instead of holding it for unearned increases in value.

Prof. Eastman spoke on "The Farmer and Militarism." He said that as a boy he had been highly in favor of war. By nature he was a militarist. But he had found that militarism was wrong. Courage could be developed in football and lacrosse, and there was plenty of opportunity in times of peace to develop moral stamina.

He declared militarism was growing in Canada. In 1894 the military budget had been $1,286,000. In 1914 the sum of $19,000,000 was called for. He told of the vast number of men who had been killed on battlefields and of the enormous cost of war.

The discharge of one big gun cost as much as a four-year university course.

There had been behind many recent war scares powerful gun-making and ammunition concerns. Subsidized newspapers in France and Germany had made it appear that trouble was imminent.

Militarism was a destructive organism which was eating as a cancer into the hearts of nations. The remedy must be expulsion, coming from the body politic.

There was one class upon which the yoke of militarism fell heavy. That was the agricultural class. But that was not so among the farmers of Western Canada. They did not demand armaments.

Even if Canada went in for rampant militarism it would be in a position to even annoy her neighbors.

PREACHES GOOD DOCTRINE.

In the presence of turmoil between capital and labor, forever cropping up in one part of the country or another, sometimes vested reasonably and within the law, but frequently with unlawful acts on the record, it is pleasing to know that there are some labor organizations in which the strike or resort to violence is persistently and successfully frowned down upon and discouraged. One of the most notable of these superior organizations of trades unionists is the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers. Very seldom indeed are the members of this organization called upon to leave their work, yet possibly there is no other trade body able to record as great success in securing benefits for its members, nor any other similar organization so highly regarded by the capitalist class.

Of course, there is a reason for this, and it may be pretty well sensed in the statement of Thomas Fitch, vice-president of the Brotherhood, in a recent speech. Mr. Fitch was giving advice to union men, and here is what he had to say to them:

"If you don't like the law, then use your votes to change it. But while it is a law, drop the

Nearly all of them are perfectly sound and in good condition. The heavier Horses are the blocky type of horse. Nearly all the heavy Horses are broke to work, and all are halter broke. If you want Horses you can't afford to miss this sale, and it is worth your time to see the bunch whether you buy or not.

The Electric Railway

Mr. Taylor, of the firm of Gibb, Taylor & Strath, the promoters of the Lacombe and Blindman Valley Electric Railway, is in town this week in connection with the preliminary work of the company. He is also of the opinion that the road will be in operation as far as Gull Lake by July 1st. Just as soon as the land is in shape to work, Mr. Hogan will put on over fifty teams and a large gang of men, and push the line to completion.

The power to be used, Mr. Taylor informs us, is what is known as the Hele Shaw system, a system in general use for traction purposes in the old country, and considered the most satisfactory power.

Mr. Taylor, in conversation with a representative of the Western Globe, said that all the preliminaries in connection with the road had been completed, and that active construction would be recommenced from Lacombe as soon as the frost was out of the ground.

The contract for the construction of the road has been let to the firm of Hogan & Co., Edmonton, railway contractors of wide experience. Mr. Hogan was over the proposed road, and has received the order for the motors, which are to be delivered as soon as possible. The contract for the other rolling stock has also been placed, and Mr. Taylor is of the opinion that the motors and cars will be on the ground early in the spring.

The steel rails have also been ordered and are expected to arrive in Lacombe in the near future.

The ties for the entire line are now spread along the proposed line between here and Rimbey, as are the fence posts and telephone poles, and all other necessary timber to be used in construction. Large gangs of men have been in the woods all winter getting out this material, and everything is now in readiness.

Several gentlemen interested in the project have been over the line in the past week or two, and without an exception, all were struck with the great possibilities for business in the country west of Lacombe.

Mr. Taylor informs us that great interest is being manifested in the Lacombe district in the east, and that the building of the electric line is being watched closely by investors, who want to get in on the ground floor when the splendid farming district traversed begins its upward boom.
